100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Was Committed,

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

The neighborhood of Pungo Chapel has again become a scene of horrid butchery. About 10 days ago, a Miss MARY WHITEHURST, a female somewhat advanced in years, who was living with a family in the vicinity of the Chapel went out to a small enclosure on a retired part of the plantation to gather cucumbers for pickling, and not returning in a reasonable time a messenger was dispatched in quest of her, but she was not to be found. The day passed away and still she did not return. On the morrow enquiry was made among all the neighbors, but none could give any account of her, and the family with whom she lived became seriously apprehensive for her safety. A day or two however, after she was missed, her lifeless body was found immersed in a swamp a considerable distance from the cucumber patch, and pierced with from 20 to 30 buck shot. It was conjectured that the horrid deed was perpetrated while she was in the act of gathering the cucumbers, and that her body was conveyed to the spot where it was found, under the belief that it would forever remain in that "dark solitude" without being discovered—but, as the saying is "murder will out."

An inquest was held on the body, and we understand that the witnesses who were called deposed, that three men of the same neighborhood, against whom the deceased had instituted a suit for damages, (which from the heinous nature of the trespass it was expected would be very heavy) had repeatedly declared that if she did not drop the prosecution they would be the death of her—this testimoney added to the notorious depravity of the men left but little doubt upon the minds of the inquest that they mere the perpetrators of the murder, and they brought in their verdict accordingly—upon which a warrant was issued to apprehend them, and they are now safely lodged in Princess Ann jail to await their trial. The deceased was a poor but very worthy inoffensive woman.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Charleston, Sept. 2.

The board of health report for the last twenty four hours, seven new cases of yellow Fever. J. A. MILLER, Clerk.

From the Winyaw Intelligencer, Sept. 1

It has become our painful duty to say that we have never known a season of such general distress by sickness in Georgetown, as the present. The principal disease is billious fever, which though severe in all cases, seldom proves fatal to any other persons than those who are strangers to the climate. Of the sixteen persons in our family not ONE has escaped—all are now either indisposed or are convalescent. This circumstance has delayed the publication of our paper to the present late hour, and will prevent its appearance again, in its present size, until we have more health in the office. Our confidence being in him whose "hands are the issues of life and death." We trust the time is not far distant, when we shall be able to issue our paper with that regularity heretofore observed.

A destructive blast appears to have done considerable injury to some of the rice fields in the neighborhood of Georgetown. The cause has not yet been satisfactorily ascertained. Some suppose it to have been effected by a pernicious use of salt water, while others attribute it to the ravages of a worm. The latter opinion, however, seems to be without foundation. Altho' a small white worm has been discovered in many of the affected stocks, yet it appears to be an effect rather than a cause, and to have been generated by the rotting of the inner pipe or stem of the rice—a common process of nature and to be discovered in all living vegetables which have parts so affected. Out of a dozen stocks taken from a field which was so much injured, the following were the observations. In some stocks the whole ear was completely blasted—in others, a half, a third, and a smaller portion. The top of the ear in every instance appeared to be first affected—the injury proceeding downwards. The stalks of some of the ears, which were completely blasted, appeared to be healthy and vigorous, and the blades of a lively green—these contained no worms—in others, worms were discovered in the inmost stem, never lower than the joint next the ear and then only when the stem was so much rotted, as to give the blade immediately covering it a yellow sickly tint.—Wherever worms were discovered, the stock was carefully examined, and no puncture was discovered either in the stem or the blade. On the whole, if the planter has to deplore the loss of his hopes, he must not ascribe it to the worm—perhaps in his previous management, he will find the cause. [Ibid.

Cincinnatti, August 20.

There came down the river to this place a few days ago, a man from Pittsburgh.—He was, what they here call "a pretty sleek Yankee." He brought with him 1000 dollars in the notes of Piatt's bank. On his arrival he went immediately to the bank and demanded specie, which was refused. He expressed much surprize that they should refuse specie, and began to walk backward and forward in the bank. After a short time he asked them to exchange for notes on banks that paid specie. This was also refused. He then told them, that if they had any notes of Owl Creek, Wooster or Uniontown, he would rather have them, than their notes. This affronted them very much; and they said, they did not suffer strangers to insult them in their bank! Our Yankee then apologized and declared, he by no means intended to insult, but, if they had any well executed counterfeit notes on any good banks they would very much oblige him, by exchanging. This affronted them so highly that they ordered him out, which he complied with, after taking a few more turns backward and forward in the bank."

If this was the only bank in the state, where fraud is accompanied with insolence, the evil, being confined to a small circle, might be patiently borne. But when similar scenes almost daily occur in every part of the state that is cursed with one of these pretended BANKS, it is high time for the people to consult their own safety, by steadily refusing to receive the notes of all banks that do not pay when called upon. In the present deranged state of the money concerns of this country, it is not safe to receive the notes of a bank, or pretended bank, whose funds and general conduct are unknown to us. We have, long enough, been the blind dupes of a set of men, who, by means of an artful "paper system," have taxed the community to an amount far exceeding the taxes imposed by government. And for what reason do we acquiesce in this "paper system" tax? Is it expended in making roads; (so much needed) in erecting manufactories; in promoting domestic industry? No! The tax thus raised from the laboring part of the community, is exclusively appropriated to the purchase of foreign goods; many of them useless, some of them pernicious; while our own citizens are discouraged from endeavoring to supply the real wants of the country.

FROM THE WEST INDIES.

New-York, Sept. 6.

We have received from our Correspondent at Bermuda, files of the Kingston Chronicle, Jamaica Courant, St. Vincent Register, Demerara Gazette, and Trinidad Courant to the 17th of July. We have also Bermuda dates to the 14th of August. The bill before the legislature of Bermuda for the appointment of sworn inspectors of imported lumber, proposes the following fees—White pine, 2s.—Pitch Pine, 2s 6d per M.—Staves is 8d—Shingles, 1s. The merchants and parties concerned will be permitted to employ a measurer or not, as they may choose.

Accounts from Trinidad state, that Bolivar had taken from the Royalists by surprise a considerable quantity of specie, and had advanced a considerable distance into New Grenada, which is represented as being in a state of rebellion. Paez was left by him on the river Apure, to keep in check the Royalists about that quarter, which it appears he is capable of doing. The Independents, it is said, have had the advantage in every skirmish with the Royalists this campaign—but, it is added, they are a vagabond set altogether.

The Kingston Chronicle, of the 16th of July, says—"Farther accounts have reached us of Lord Cochrane's proceedings. He was still before Calao, and did not seem at all disposed to raise the siege. He had been fortunate enough to capture a Spanish galleon, having upwards of one million dollars on board, bound to Old Spain. The officers taken at Porto Bello were still at the town of Darien, and the men at Panama were pursuing their various occupations."

Thirty tierces of good and fine middling coffee were sold at auction at Kingston, on the 14th of July, at 6*l.* 10*s.* 5*d.*

FEMALE PATRIOT.

In South America it is not the men only who are conspicuous for the energetic assertion and defence of their liberties. The women are animated with a republican devotion to the cause of independence, the sole guarantee of private happiness. The wife of general Padilla accompanies him to the field, and has been nominated a lieutenant colonel, for taking with her own hand a Spanish colour. The women of Cochabambo were stationed to defend a post, on the attack on that town, and all perished. In Upper Peru it is now customary to enquire at every roll-call, if the women of Cochabambo have presented themselves?—and the answer regularly given, to perpetuate the exploit, is, "No, they have all perished in defence of their country." DISTRESSING DISCOVERY.

A discovery has taken place which has disappointed the fond wishes of two lovers in high life, and totally deranged the hopes and expectation of the family of one of the parties. A young nobleman, heir apparent to a marquis, was lately on the eve of marriage with the interesting and accomplished daughter of an English earl. Every preparation was made, and the day fixed for the completion of their mutual happiness, when a fatal defect was discovered in the pedigree of the noble suiter, which has cheated him of his fondest hopes.—Upon the examination of the family papers, it was found that his mother the marchioness, was not born in wedlock, and that at the age of 18, she was married by license, and not by banns—and consequently that the marriage was illegal, and the cause of it illegitimate. By this fatal mistake the issue of the present marriage are removed from the place which they have so long filled, and the nephew of the marquis is become the heir presumptive to his titles and estates. [Ibid.

Six Leghorn hats were purchased a few days since by a Russian nobleman, as presents for Russian ladies, at Vyse's, the cost of which was 180 guineas (three hundred and fifty-five dollars each.) [Ibid.

Sag-Harbor, Aug. 28.

The ship Union, Capt. Jonathan Osborn, sailed on Friday of last week, for the coast of Patagonia, on a whaling voyage.

Six of the crew of the brig Harriet of this port arrived here on Monday last from Pernambuco, via Boston. The Harriet was wrecked near the mouth of the river St. Francisco, on the night of the 23d May last, in a heavy squall of wind. The brig fell to peices in about eight and forty hours after striking the shore. The crew consisting of 22 men were all saved. Captain Hildreth, and 2 men, remained at Panado, in order to obtain a passage to Pernambuco, being unable to travel: the distance being between two and three hundred miles. The Harriet was from the coast of Patagonia, with 700 barrels of oil, she left the bank about the first of February in order to proceed to St. Catherines to repair damages.—The vessel was in a manner unfit for sea through the carlessness of the N. Y. ship carpenters, who repaired her previous to her going to sea; her stem having only three bolts, when it ought to have had at least six. In rugged weather her stem would work to and fro an inch. The crew having lost all of their clothing, &c. were brought home in the brig Ann, capt. Sabine, which arrived at Boston, on the 15th inst. The crew state that captain Sabine is an unfeeling and hard-hearted wretch. We shall in our next give a statement of the bad usage received by the crew of the brig Harriet, captain Sabine.

WESTERN COMMERCE.

[We copy the following brilliant article on western commerce from the Inquisitor. Its views are nowise fallacious; and we have no doubt of the result being equal to the anticipation. By casting our eyes towards the lakes too, we shall find the prospect equally flattering. The great canal connecting New-York with Lake Erie, opens to this state a most extensive commerce with that city, or other Atlantic ports, or with the lake country; so that Ohio, embraced as it were by both Oceans, must necessarily become rich and powerful as a manufacturing; agricultural and commercial state.]

[Cincinnati Inquirer.

"The discovery of steam boat navigation is an important era in the history of commerce. To the western states of America, its benefits will be incalculably great. It is the opening of a scene of which, at present, we can have but faint conceptions. The facilities which it affords in communicating with New-Orleans, have already wrought a powerful change in the character of our local transactions; and its effects will go to produce entire new calculations and new views in whatever relates to this great object. The most satisfactory experiments have removed all fears with respect to the perfect safety and speed of steam boats in traversing the great Atlantic; and to suggest a doubt of their coming hereafter into general use among commercial nations in their communications with each other, would be absurd.

The distance of the interior parts of America from the ocean, has hitherto been considered a serious objection to the country itself. The known character of its climate and soil was not of sufficient importance in the opinion of many, to balance the advantages of easy access to the ocean. But the complexion of things will soon undergo a material change. All those objections and prejudices will shortly vanish before the magic influence of genius and enterprise; and our eastern brethren will hear, with wonder and astonishment, that our western cities resound with the exhilirating echoes of foreign commerce; and that they are in a way to participate freely in the aggrandizement that usually follows in her train. Nor can we doubt that the operation of these things will allure to our shores men of all professions and pursuits.

Where can arise the objection to the plan of freighting our steam boats at all our western towns that are well situated and opening a direct communication with the West-India Islands? To say this cannot be done, would be to make a declaration in defiance of truth and experience. From the fairest computation that can be made, a good boat could run from Cincinnati to Havana in twelve days, and allowing ten days to discharge and take in a cargo, would return in twenty more, which would make forty-two days; but as there might be accident and detention, a calculation of fifty days out and home, would be a reasonable one. So far, then, as profits accrue from commercial transactions, they would be exclusively enjoyed at home.

And since our country furnishes every article of sustenance which the inhabitants of Cuba, or any other island, can covet, why shall we not transport to them our valuable surplus produce, and receive in exchange either gold and silver, which is their only medium, or such other articles as would be an equivalent; and for which there will be neither end nor measure in the demand? And if this can be done, and by so doing, open a door of immense emolument to our own particular district, why shall it not be done? Why shall not coffee, and sugar, and rice, and molasses, and liquors, and indigo, and the tropical fruits, and many other articles be brought directly from those countries which produce them, instead of seeking them in other markets at an enhanced price and often of bad qualities? Why shall we not carry our own produce to market, instead of making others the carriers? Why shall we not have the benefits arising from outfits and adventures in place of a part?—Why shall we submit to the policy of building up other cities at the expence of our own? And why should we be the tributaries of New-Orleans' speculators, when we could more beneficially pass them by, regardless of their flattering but deceptive allurements?

It certainly does appear evident to our understanding, that a most important and lucrative intercourse can be opened, at least with the Island of Cuba, if not with several of the other large and populous islands; nor are we able to perceive wherein it would not prove highly beneficial.—In addition to many other articles, we have the finest flour and the most nutritious corn meal in the world; and there could be no difficulty in transporting it fresh and pure in a voyage of a few days. Its freshness, as well as its known goodness, would be a strong recommendation to purchase—nor could a well grounded fear remain, under such circumstances, of a ready sale and fair prices. We have wealth enough, and skill and intelligence, and enterprize enough, to make experiments that can hardly fail to result in liberal and gratifying rewards. The West-India trade has always been a source of profit to those who pursued it prudently; and the fair conclusion is, it will for ever continue to be profitable. No people can be more advantageously situated in this respect than the people of Ohio, and particularly of this place. Our soil is capable of producing infinite quantities of the best kinds of produce; and in return for it the treasures of the Spanish provinces and the Islands can be laid at our feet. Our situation is indeed a commanding one; and, if suitably improved, it will increase our borders with numbers, confer dignity on our country, and bring to our habitations many of the choicest productions of the earth. The time is at hand when our steam boats will be seen familiarly communicating with the Gulf of Mexico and the Carribean sea; feeding the numerous population of the islands, and drawing thence their overflowing wealth. There can scarcely exist a doubt that at a very early period we shall become as much accustomed to the arrivals and departures of our vessels at and from foreign ports, as the people of the Atlantic towns.

The gold of Mexico and Peru, the valuable native commodities of the islands, with their healthful and fragrant fruits, together with the wonders of the mighty deep will be at our disposal, and combine to increase our enjoyments, to awaken our growing character, to recommend our verdant plains, and to impart new life and vigour to the movements of a people, whose rich inheritance is destined hereafter to flow in grateful streams of "milk and honey."

Dublin, July 19.

DINNER TO GENERAL D'EVEREUX.

The dinner to be given to our distinguished countryman, Gen. D'Evereux, of the South American Patriot service, will take place this day at Morrison's. It will be one of the most splendid and most numerously, as well as respectably attended, that was ever given in Dublin on any former occasion. That patriotic and truly liberal Irishman, Lord Cloncurry, will take the chair. Among the invited guests is the Rev. Mr. Shepherd, of Liverpool, who happens to be now in Dublin, a gentleman highly distinguished for his talents and public spirit, whose eloquence has been frequently exerted at public meetings in Liverpool, to support the cause of civil and religious liberty. The following are copies of the letter of invitation, and the General's answer:—

Morrison's, Nassau-street, 17th July, 1819.

SIR—The Irish Friends of South American Independence request the honor of your company at a public dinner, on Monday the 19th inst. They are anxious to offer you this humble testimony, not only of the sense they entertain of the character you have acquired, but of their anticipation that your future services will prove alike valuable to your cause, and honorable to your country. I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient faithful serv't.

DANIEL O'CONNELL, Secr'y.

To Major General D'Evereux, &c.

THE ANSWER.

Gresham's Hotel, July 17, 1819.

Juan D'Evereux, de la Orden del Libertador, Mayor-general del exercito de la Republica de Venezuela, y Nueva Granada, y Commandante de la Legion Irlandesa, &c. &c.

SIR—I have the honor of your letter, conveying to me an invitation of the Irish Friends of South American Independence, to a public dinner on Monday next.

I accept the invitation with the liveliest feelings of respect and gratitude towards those gentlemen who thus manifest the interest they take in the cause of the New World; for it is to the merits of this cause alone I must consider myself indebted for so distinguished an honor.

To render my future exertions valuable to South America, and serviceable as well as honorable to my country, will be my study and ambition. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient and humble servant, JOHN D'EVEREUX.

To D. O'Connell, Esq.

General D'Evereux's Levee.

Yesterday, Gen. D'Evereux held a military levee, at Morrison's, Dawson-street. Among the company present, which was numerous and fashionable, we observed a number of fine women. The General, on entering the room, was received with a burst of applause. He was accompanied by his staff and the officers of the First Lancers of his Legion. At half past three Colonel Lyster entered supported by a number of officers, bearing, by desire of the General, the new stand of colors for Colonel Alymer's regiment. General D'Evereux then addressed the corps as follows:—

"Brother Soldiers—This standard you will receive from the hands of a Lady who admires the motives which prompt you to leave your country; and in the hour of danger, I feel satisfied that the recollection of this day will animate you in its defence, and stimulate you to deeds of glory. I trust, and am convinced I shall ever behold this standard a pledge of your fidelity and your honor; and that, in rallying round it, you will also shed a lustre upon Ireland." (Loud and reiterated cheers followed this address, which was delivered with grace and feeling.)

The Lady of Counsellor O'Connell, taking the colors from the General, addressed the Colonel and his officers to this effect:—

"Gentlemen—I have the honor to present you this flag, which I am sure you will not cherish the less for being handed to you by an Irishwoman, who admires and loves those emotions of courage and sentiments of liberality which bear you far from your native land. May success and glory attend your steps, and peace and happiness crown your efforts! This, gentlemen, shall be my sincere prayer."—[Mrs. O'Connell was very impressive, but was evidently much affected towards the conclusion of the address, which was followed by cheering and waving of hats.]

Seldom has there been seen, in a single regiment, so fine a corps of officers as those of the Lancers; they were the admiration of all present. The General went round a vast circle, paying his respects to his friends, and at a quarter before five, the levee broke up; every one delighted with the imposing spectacle, so cheering to every friend of suffering humanity. An immense number of people surrounded the hotel.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.

The recent deaths of the two Messrs. Van Ness, has produced considerable sensation—and the Board of Health, at a special meeting, have reported on the authority of Dr. Quackenbos, the resident Physician, that both died of yellow fever! But Drs. Boyd and Pascalis, who attended these patients, differ from our worthy resident. The attending physicians do not consider these cases either exotic or contagious, but brought on by irregularities or exposure—and they are satisfied that the disease of which these young men died, was not brought on by any possible circumstance of communication or contagion. The joint opinions of Drs. Boyd, Pascalis, and Hosack, are, 1st at these were two cases of high bilious remittent fever.

New-York Board of Health,
Monday, 6th Sept. 1819.

Whereas this Board has reason to believe that several Deaths of Malignant Fever have occurred at Old-slip and its vicinity—Therefore,

Resolved, That the inhabitants of that part of the city situate within the following boundaries, to wit, beginning at the foot of Pier No. 8, East River, thence running on the easterly side of the same Pier and the adjoining Slip to the corner of Pearl-street, thence up Pearl-street, to the west side of Wall street, thence down Wall-street to the East River, be and are hereby recommended to remove, and that all vessels be removed from within the bounds aforesaid.

Resolved, That it be and hereby is earnestly recommended to the inhabitants of the said city, as well within the boundaries aforesaid as elsewhere, to purify their yards, gutters, and privies, by a free use of quick or unslacked lime.

Resolved, That the Assistants of the Board of Health, together with the City Inspector and his Assistants, be, and hereby are required to examine every house and lot within the limits described in the first resolution; and that wherever it may be found necessary, they cause any house, apartment, cellar, or yard, to be cleansed, and that they cause all privies, sinks, gutters, or other noxious places that may be neglected by the inhabitants, and which may appear to be deleterious, to be purified by a free use of quick lime.

By order of the Board,
JACOB MORTON,
Sec'ry to the Board of Health.

Died,

On Tuesday evening, after a painful and protracted illness, our worthy fellow citizen, ROBERT BRENT, esq. late Paymaster General of the Army, and Judge of the Orphan's Court for the county of Washington. No man has enjoyed among us more esteem than he. His honorable and virtuous character commanded general respect, which his amiable and benignant temper and manners ripened into warm attachment on the part of those who personally knew him. National Intelligencer.

In Rhode-Island, on Tuesday evening week, the hon. JAMES BROWN MASON, late representative in congress from the state of Rhode-Island, in the 45th year of his age. Among the offices to which he had been called by the voice of his fellow-citizens, were those of the speaker of the house of representatives, and major general of the militia of that state. He was an inestimable man.

Forty Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED, this morning, from the service of the subscriber, a negro boy, named JOE, who is about 20 years of age; 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; muscular in form, but ill-shaped, and turns his toes out so much as to have at times the appearance of being deformed; he is very black; is strongly marked by the small-pox; has small sunken eyes, and a downcast look when spoken to; and speaks in reply hastily and indistinctly.

He is very artful, and often affects being a fool, in order that he may act the knave more successfully.

I will give TEN DOLLARS for his apprehension within the District or in the neighborhood of Town; and 40 dollars if he be taken north of Washington, and secured in any jail so that I recover him.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, the tract of land on which he lives, containing about Fifteen Hundred Acres.

It joins the town of Warrenton, the seat of justice for Fauquier county—it is 42 miles from Alexandria, the city of Washington and Georgetown; 40 from Fredericksburg, and 45 from Winchester. This estate, in a neighborhood celebrated for health and good water, is well adapted to grazing and to the growth of corn and wheat. The turnpike road leading from Alexandria to Warrenton is finished, with the exception of seven miles. The improvements are a two story house, about fifty feet long, in the suburbs of Warrenton; two houses for overseers; a large barn, stables, and every necessary house for a farm. On the property are 8 good apple orchards, and a variety of other fruit trees. This tract is now divided into two farms—each of which has a superabundance of wood, and is laid off into six fields under good fences, with running water in every field. I believe there is a sufficiency of stone on the land to enclose the whole tract. Both farms have been under a course of clover and plaister for several years, by which they have been much improved, as the plaister acts with very great effect. The subscriber will divide the tract to suit purchasers. The terms are one third down, with an accommodating credit on the balance, if he sells a part; but only one fourth if the purchaser buys the whole tract, together with the stock of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, the farming utensils of every description, and all the provision that may be on hand for the support of the farm.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the district of Fredericksburg, in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell, at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next, lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg. The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

4000 Acres of Land,

JOHN LINTON,
JOHN GIBSON,
PHILIP HARRISON.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satrsfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country; and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26

For Sale,

TWO tracts of valuable land in Durham Parish, Charles County, Maryland opposite Nanjemoy Reach—one of these tracts of land is bounded on one side by the Potomac, has a valuable fishery, and contains about 360 acres of bottom, with a quantity of wood that ought to be cut.—The other is about three-fourths of a mile from the river, from one half to two thirds covered with wood and valuable white-oak timber, and contains about 700 acres. Both tracts have an orchard of choice fruit. The above land will be sold at Charles County Court, on THURSDAY in the third week of August next at Public sale, if not sold before, at private sale.—The terms will be made known at the sale. Timber or wood may be purchased any time previous to the sale
